RULING ON APPLICATION FOR ORDER
 APPOINTING RECEIVER, ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY RECEIVER
 SHOULD NOT BE CONFIRMED AND FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

DATE: AUGUST 4, 2010
 TIME: 3:00 P.M.
 DEPT: 16

17 TO ALL PARTIES AND THEIR ATTORNEY OF RECORD:

18 This matter came on for hearing on August 4, 2010, in Department 16 of the 19 Sonoma County Superior Court with the Honorable Elliot Lee Daum presiding. A 20 tentative ruling was published on August 3, 2010. Mandy Power dba Judgment 21 Enforcement USA, Assignee of record, was present. Walter Steinman, previous 22 Assignee of record, was present. Defendants Paul Den Beste and Melody Den Beste, 23 self-represented parties were present. The court then took this matter under 24 submission and now issues the following ruling:
 25

26 On October 11, 2005, the Court awarded judgment to the plaintiffs and Judgment
 27 Creditors, John F. DeMeo and Bradford J. DeMeo, in this action against Defendant Paul 28

1 Den Beste and Melody Den Beste ("Judgment Debtors"). The DeMeo's later assigned 2 the judgment to Walter Steinmann dba Judgment Enforcement USA ("Steinmann") by 3 assignment filed in this action on December 24, 2008. Steinmann subsequently 4 assigned the judgment to Mandy Power dba Judgment Enforcement USA ("Power") on 5 April 14, 2010.

7 Three additional judgments in two other cases were also awarded by this court in 8 favor of the DeMeo's and against Judgment Debtors Paul Den Beste and Melody
9 DenBeste. Likewise, they were assigned to Steinmann, who assigned them to current 10 assignee, Power, on or about April 14, 2010.

11 The amount owing on all four judgment awards as of July 15, 2010 is $56,086.89
12 with statutory daily interest accruing of $11.45.

13 Judgment Creditor requests appointment of receiver over all non-exempt real 14 and personal property and business interest owned, controlled, or possessed by 15 Judgment Debtors, wherever located and whether now or in the future owned,
16 controlled or possessed by them.

18 MOTION:

19 Judgment Creditor requests appointment of receiver over all non-exempt real 20 and personal property and business interest ("Property") owned, controlled, or 21 possessed by Judgment Debtors, wherever located and whether now or in the future
22 owned, controlled or possessed by them. The application is made in light of the two 23 recent occasions when Judgment Debtors, Paul Den Beste and Melody Den Beste, 24 moved substantial assets out of the reach of the judgment creditor immediately after an 25 enforcement activity, indicating that further transfer of remaining assets is likely in 26 response to further enforcement efforts.
27
28

1 The Court initially received the Application for Appointment of a Receiver as an 2 ex parte order. The Court declined to grant the ex parte request, but instead issued an 3 Order to Show Cause to give judgment debtors Paul Den Beste and Melody Den Beste
4 the chance to respond to what has been characterized as a drastic collection means.

5 The TRO applied for requests relief directing judgment debtors to refrain from 6 engaging in or performing certain acts regarding the property assets. The list is long,
7 and is found at pages 2-3 of the Ex Parte Application.

8 Judgment Creditor nominates Patrick Bulmer of California Receivership Services
9 as the receiver in this matter.

11 OPPOSITION:

12 A 39 page opposition was delivered to the court on July 29, 2010 by the 13 judgment debtors, Paul Den Beste and Melody Den Beste.

14 Judgment Debtors devote much effort in claiming and explaining the judgment(s) 15 in this case is/are void, and that the court lacks jurisdiction to hear this matter.

16 First, Judgment Debtors claim that Judgment Enforcement, USA does not 17 disclose to the court that it is suspended, or how in its suspended status it has standing 18 to apply for appointment of a receiver. Attached to Judgment Debtor's Opposition as 19 Exhibit 1 is a document that purports to be a print out from California Secretary of State
20 Debra Bowen's website, listing Judgment Enforcement USA, Inc. as a suspended 21 corporation as of September 19, 2009. The document is inadmissible hearsay because 22 it is not supported by a declaration attesting to its authenticity. Nonetheless, Judgment 23 Creditors have replied with significant documentation of their own averring their 24 separateness from Judgment Enforcement USA, Inc. Indeed, Mandy Powers has 25 satisfactorily demonstrated to this Court that she is a sole proprietorship and is the 26 lawfully designated assignee of the rights of collection on these judgments.

Judgment Debtors do not present a less harsh alternative to appointment of receiver in his Points and Authorities in Opposition, nor did he offer any alternatives at oral argument.

ANALYSIS:

C.C.P. §564(b)(9), on which Plaintiffs rely, allows the court to appoint a receiver in all cases where necessary to preserve the property or rights of any party. More specifically, subsection (b)(1) states that the court may appoint a receiver in, amongst others, an action between partners or others jointly owning or interested in any property on the application of a party "and where it is shown that the property or fund is in danger of being lost, removed, or materially injured."

Courts have appointed receivers in cases involving dissolution of partnerships. See Albertson v. Warriner (1962) 199 Cal.App.2d 560, 565; Breedlove v. Breedlove (J.W. & E.M.) Excavating Co. (1942) 56 Cal.App.2d 141; see also 6 Witkin, Cal.Proc. (4th Ed.1997) Provisional Remedies, section 425. In fact, in cases of partnership dissolution and accounting, a partner's interest is usually considered clear and the danger of removal or loss normally great so that this presents "a typical case for receivership, and the appointment is frequently made." 6 Witkin, supra. However, a receiver will not automatically be granted; the moving party must make the required showing. McCaslin v. Kenney (1950) 100 Cal.App.2d 87, 95.

According to Steinberg v. Goldstein (1954) 129 Cal.App.2d 682, at 686, a receiver is simply intended to aid in ensuring a smooth and proper outcome for the action by preserving the property during litigation so that any judgment may provide effective relief. In fact, the Supreme Court stated in Goes v. Perry (1941) 18 Cal.2d 373, 381, that where litigation involves a dispute over ownership of property, and it

1 satisfactorily appears that the property is a type that may be lost, secreted, reduced in 2 value, etc., before the matter is concluded, and Plaintiff has adequately shown a 3 reasonably certain interest in the property, then the court may appoint a receiver to take 4 custody of the property.

5 The rule is established that the appointment of a receiver rests largely in the 6 discretion of the trial court and that its action in appointing a receiver or its refusal of an 7 application for the appointment of such an officer will not be disturbed in the absence of 8 a showing that the court's discretion has been abused. However, appointment of a 9 receiver is a drastic remedy to be employed only in exceptional circumstances. As 10 stated by the court in Elson v. Nyhan, supra, 45 Cal.App.2d at page 5, "[r]eceivers are 11 often legal luxuries, frequently representing an extravagant cost to a losing litigant.
 12 When it appears that no reasonably certain benefit will result to one litigant, and a 13 distinct disadvantage will result to another, courts should weigh carefully the propriety of 14 appointing a receiver." A trial court must consider the availability and efficacy of other 15 remedies in determining whether to employ the extraordinary remedy of a receivership.
 16 City and County of San Francisco v. Daley (1993) 16 Cal.App.4th 734, 744-745.

17 To date there has been no satisfaction of any of the judgments. If anything,
 18 Judgment Debtors have attempted to place their assets out of reach of Judgment 19 Creditor.

20 The assets that Judgment Creditor claims could be used to satisfy judgments are 21 listed at pages 5-8 in Judgment Creditors Ex Parte Application.

22 Assets Transferred Out of Reach of Judgment Creditor Despite Execution of Lien

23 Judgment Creditor declares that the four most recent bank levies, all served on 24 December 15, 2009, yielded $117.06. See Declaration of Steinmann ¶¶8 and Exh. "13"

1 attached thereto. The deposit account associated with the trust was not reached by the 2 levy and it had a balance of approximately $74,193.28 at the time of levy. Nine days
3 after the levy was served on the bank, a deposit of $41,036.10 was made to the trust's
4 deposit account. The amount of this deposit was far in excess of any use of the account
5 in the previous 13 months. Dec. of Power, ¶¶7 &9 and Exhibits 6 and 8. There has been 6 no response by Judgment Debtors to these allegations and the Court accepts them as 7 true and correct.

9 On April 26, 2010 Den Beste refused to appear and produce records which 10 would have explained the source of the $41,036.10 deposited to the account and the 11 destination of approximately $115,000 that he withdrew from it, both of which actions 12 were taken within days of an enforcement effort.

14 He was ordered by the Court to appear and produce on May 17, 2010. He still 15 did not appear and the court ordered a civil bench warrant for his arrest and appearance
16 at a hearing on August 23, 2010. Dec. of Steinmann ¶¶9 and Exhibit 15; Power Dec. ¶¶11
17 and Exhibit 3, and Exhibits 21 and 22 to Request for Judicial Notice.

18 Judgment Creditors also declare that Judgment Debtor Melody Den Beste wrote
19 several corporate checks to pay the auto loan taken out by judgment debtor Paul Den
20 Beste as an individual. Power Dec. par. 12 and Exhibit 6 to Steinmann Dec.
21

22 The court is satisfied by the representations of the parties that the Judgment
23 Debtors have never accepted the viability and finality of the judgments that have led to 24 these collection actions. Apparently there is a civil warrant for judgment debtor Paul
25 Den Beste in this very proceeding based on his failure to appear and produce records 26 on April 26, 2010 and a subsequent order to appear on May 17, 2010 precipitated the 27 drastic measure of the issuance of an arrest warrant. Judgment Debtor Paul Den Beste 28 has apparently been ordered to appear once again on August 23, 2010.

1 The Court's examination of its own records reveals that the judgments in these 2 matters are all final, beyond any appellate remedy, and ripe for collection. This Court is 3 loath to order the drastic remedy of receivership, but it is obvious that all other methods 4 of collection have been met with stubborn refusal to abide by the mandates of the 5 Court's lawful orders and judgment.

7 The Court having considered the within application for appointment of receiver,
8 the records and files in this case, and the oral arguments of the parties, and good cause
9 appearing therefore, now orders the appointment of a receiver as follows:

10 1. Upon the filing of a bond or cash in lieu of bond by Assignee under Code of 11 Civ. Proc. § 566(b) in the amount of $ 500.00, Patrick Bulmer of California
12 Receivership Services (hereinafter "Receiver") be, and hereby is, appointed receiver
13 under Code of Civil Procedure §708.620.

14 2. All real and personal property and business interests subject to enforcement 15 of a judgment (hereinafter collectively "Property") owned, controlled, or possessed by 16 Paul Den Beste and/or Melody Den Beste (hereinafter collectively "Judgment 17 Debtors"), wherever located and whether now or in the future owned, controlled or 18 possessed by the Judgment Debtors, jointly or individually, shall constitute the 19 receivership estate (hereinafter "Receivership Estate"). Without limiting the generality
20 of the foregoing, the Property includes all stock, interests and assets of the California
21 corporation, DenBeste Yard & Garden, Inc., including, but not limited to rents, stocks,
22 dividends and wages, and the real property located at 26912 and 26916 Asti Road,
23 Cloverdale, CA 95425, assessor parcel numbers 118-010-050-000 and 118-010-046-24 000. The legal description of said real property is attached hereto as Exhibit "1" and is 25 incorporated herein by this reference.

26 3. Upon the Receiver's filing of an undertaking in the amount of $25,000.00 27 under Code of Civil Procedure §567. and taking his oath, the Receiver shall have the 28 following powers and responsibilities:

1 (a.) After so qualifying, said Receiver shall take possession of the 2 Property and collect all receivables and proceeds arising from or constituting 3 the Property, whether presently due, or to become due in the future. Without 4 limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Receiver is authorized to enter into 5 and take possession of all documents and records comprising or relating to the 6 Property in the name of or in the possession of the Judgment Debtors, and the 7 Receiver is authorized to enter into any place of business with or without the 8 permission of the Judgment Debtors and/or their agents to take possession and 9 control of the Property, including but not limited to replacing or changing locks
10 and codes as may be necessary for such purpose in the Receiver's reasonable 11 discretion. The Receiver may notify account debtors of the Judgment Debtors 12 that they should make payments to him and may take reasonable steps to 13 collect such receivables.

14 (b.) The Receiver shall care for, preserve and maintain the Property and 15 incur the expenses necessary in such care, preservation and maintenance, and 16 monies coming into the possession of the said Receiver pursuant hereto and 17 not expended for any of the purposes herein authorized shall be held by said 18 Receiver, subject to such orders as this Court may hereinafter issue as to its 19 disposition.

20 (c.) The Receiver may, in his discretion, operate and conduct DenBeste
21 Yard & Garden, Inc. in the ordinary and usual course of business, to preserve 22 and maintain said business pending hearing on the order to show cause to 23 confirm Receiver's appointment. Receiver is hereby authorized to employ 24 servants, agents, employees, clerks and accountants to purchase materials, 25 supplies, and services and to pay therefore at ordinary and usual rates and 26 prices out of funds that shall come into his possession as such Receiver; to 27 bring suit in his own name without further leave of court as the Receiver deems 28 necessary to protect, preserve and maintain the rights, privileges and property of the receivership estate; to compromise debts and to do all things and to incur the risks and obligations ordinarily incurred by owners, managers, and

1 operators of similar properties and enterprises and that no such risk or 2 obligation so incurred shall be the personal risk or obligation of said Receiver
3 but shall be a risk or obligation of the Receivership Estate. Without limiting the 4 generality of the foregoing, the Receiver shall have the exclusive right to 5 exercise all powers, privileges, and rights of the Judgment Debtors with respect
6 to any stocks, bonds, partnership interests, licenses, permits, authorizations, 7 and the like constituting or comprising the Property, including, but not limited to,
8 voting and proxy rights, if any.

9 (d.) The Judgment Debtors shall notify the Receiver on his taking 10 possession of the Property whether or not there is sufficient insurance
11 coverage thereon. If sufficient insurance coverage does exist, the Judgment 12 Debtors shall be responsible and are hereby ordered to make certain that the 13 Receiver is named as an additional insured on such policy for the period that 14 the Receivership Estate shall be in possession of the Property. If sufficient 15 insurance coverage does not exist it is hereby ordered that the Receiver shall 16 have fifteen (15) working days to procure said insurance on the Property,
17 provided he has funds available to do so, and during such period, said Receiver 18 shall not be personally responsible for claims arising from or for the 19 procurement of insurance.

20 (e.) The Receiver shall take possession and control of all of the records,
21 correspondence, general ledgers, cash receipts journals, books, safe deposit
22 boxes and their contents, and all deposit accounts of the Judgment Debtors 23 which relate or refer to the Property and/or the Receivership Estate, and the 24 maintenance and proceeds of the Property, whether in the possession and 25 control of the Judgment Debtors or in the possession and control of agents, 26 servants or employees of the Judgment Debtors.

27 (f.) The Receiver is authorized to borrow funds on the basis of 28 receivership certificates to be issued by the Receiver. If necessary or appropriate, the Receiver may pledge, mortgage and hypothecate assets of the receivership estate to secure the repayment of such borrowing.

1 4. The Judgment Debtors, as well as all persons claiming possession or other
2 rights by, through, or under the Judgment Debtors must, on request and exhibition of a
3 conformed copy of this Order, immediately deliver possession of any properties
4 described herein to the Receiver, along with all accounting, maintenance, rent, deposit
5 accounts, safe deposit box contents, checks, drafts, stock certificates, any other 6 negotiable instruments or deposits, and related records concerning the Property, and 7 any keys, access codes, computer account passwords, and any other mechanisms or 8 devices required to grant access to the Property, or to any documents or records 9 relating thereto.

10 5. All persons or entities owing any money to the Judgment Debtors or 11 DenBeste Yard & Garden, Inc. with respect to the Property shall pay the same directly 12 to the Receiver, and shall attorn to the Receiver. Without limiting the generality of the 13 foregoing, upon presentation of a conformed copy of this order, any financial institution
14 holding deposit accounts to which either of the Judgment Debtors is an authorized 15 signer, or funds or property of the Judgment Debtors, shall immediately turn all such 16 deposit accounts, funds and property (and records related thereto) over to the 17 Receiver upon demand.

18 6. Upon presentation of a conformed copy of this Order to any third party 19 owing performance or obligation or duty to the Judgment Debtors with respect to the 20 Property, such third parties shall render any performance or duties with respect to the 21 Property directly to the Receiver.

22 7. The Receiver shall be paid a one-time startup fee of $2,000.00 and on an 23 hourly basis in the amount of $250.00 per hour for his services as receiver, and 24 $90.00 per hour for travel and waiting time ($300.00 flat rate round trip charge 25 between Northern and Southern California offices). Receiver and Receiver's agents 26 and employees shall be reimbursed at the rate of $0.60 per mile for use of their 27 personal vehicles. Receiver is further authorized to employ servants, agents, 28 employees, clerks and accountants, to rent vehicles and equipment, to procure transportation and lodging, to purchase materials, supplies and services, and to pay

1 for same at ordinary and usual rates and prices, as deemed necessary and 2 appropriate in Receiver's discretion for operation of the receivership. All of the 3 aforementioned fees and expenses shall be paid out of funds that shall come into 4 possession of the Receiver and shall constitute a first charge against the property and 5 funds in receivership.

6 8. The Receiver shall issue periodic interim accounting and reports regarding 7 the receivership, and serve those reports on all parties to the action entitled to notice.
8 The Receiver's interim accounting and reports may be prepared no more frequently
9 than once per month and no less frequently than bimonthly, as deemed necessary
10 and appropriate in Receiver's discretion. Upon service of Receiver's interim report, 11 Receiver may pay the amount of fees and expenses claimed in the report from funds 12 of the receivership estate in his possession. Amounts not paid within 10 days of 13 service of any interim report shall bear interest at the rate of 1.5% per month from the 14 date of the report. Any objections not timely made in accordance with C.R.C. 3.1183 shall be deemed waived.

15 9. The Receiver shall, within thirty (30) days of his qualification hereunder, file
16 in this action an inventory of all property of which he shall have taken possession 17 pursuant hereto.

18 10. The Receiver is authorized and directed to collect and open all mail of the 19 Judgment Debtors and/or DenBeste Yard & Garden, Inc. relating to the Property, and 20 that the Receiver shall hold all monies coming into his possession in an interest-
21 bearing account to be expended for the following purposes and in the following 22 priorities:

23 (a.) For the expenses of administering the receivership;

24 (b.) For all expenses incurred by the Receiver in managing the Property;

25 (c.) For interim Receiver's fees to be paid monthly and to be paid by the 26 Receiver from such funds as are in his possession, at the Receiver's normal 27 and customary rate.

28 (d.) The payment of any remaining funds as the Court may direct by separate order.

11. The scope of the within receivership extends to the following judgments, all pending in the Superior Court of California, County of Sonoma, entitled:

Upon payment by the Judgment Debtors to Receiver of the full amount due as shown above for all four judgments, including any accrued interest through the date of payment, plus payment of Receiver's estimated fees and expenses (as determined by Receiver), Receiver shall return possession of the Property to the Judgment Debtors and promptly notify the Court of satisfaction of the judgments.

12. In addition to all of the powers set forth herein, the Receiver is hereby vested with all of the general powers and authority provided by law to receivers, subject to further confirmation and orders of this Court. The Receiver shall, from time to time, or when directed by the Court, render to the Court reports of the proceedings and accountings with respect to all of the acts and things done by him and all monies received and expended by him or his agents.

13. The Judgment Debtors and their agents, servants, directors, officers, affiliates, employees, attorneys, representatives, and all other persons and entities who are successors in interest to or who are acting in concert or participating with them, or any of them are hereby restrained and ENJOINED from engaging in or performing, directly or indirectly, any of the following acts:

(a.) Retaining possession of the Property;

(b.) Expending, disbursing, transferring, assigning, selling, conveying, devising, pledging, mortgaging, creating a security interest in, encumbering, concealing or in any manner whatsoever delaying in or disposing of the whole or any part of the Property, without the written consent of the Receiver first being obtained;

1 (c.) Demanding, collecting, receiving, expending, disposing, assigning,
2 secreting or in any other way diverting, using or making unavailable to the 3 Receiver the Property or any of the issues or proceeds thereof;

4 (d.) Doing any act which will, or which will tend to, impair, defeat, divert,
5 prevent or prejudice the preservation of the Property or the Receiver's interest
6 therein, in whatever form the interest is held or used as of this date, pending
7 further proceedings in this action;

8 (e.) Destroying, concealing, transferring or failing to preserve any 9 document which evidences, reflects or pertains to the Property, or any part 10 thereof;

11 (f.) Committing or permitting any waste of the Property or any party 12 thereof, or suffering, committing or permitting any acts thereon in violation of 13 the law;

14 (g.) Removing, transferring, encumbering or otherwise disposing of the 15 Property until further order of this Court; or

16 (h.) interfering in any manner with the Property or Receiver's
17 possession thereof. The prohibited interference includes, without limitation, 18 communicating or contacting any contractees of the Receiver, exercising or 19 attempting to exercise any control or management of functions in connection
20 with the Property or otherwise engaging in acts inconsistent with the Receiver's
21 sole authority to operate, manage and control the Property.

22 14. The Receiver and the parties to this action may, from time to time and 23 upon due notice to the parties entitled thereto, petition this Court for instructions in 24 pursuance of this Order and further orders this Court may hereafter make.

25 15. The Judgment Debtors are directed and ordered to promptly account to the 26 Receiver for all monies representing revenues, issues and proceeds of the Property
27 from and after January 1, 2003, up to and including the date of this Order.

28 16. The Judgment Debtors shall surrender to the Receiver all monies accountable to the revenues, issues and proceeds of the Property, whether generated from the past or present, now in the possession, custody or control of the Judgment

1 Debtors, or their agents, servants or employees, and all records, books of account, 2 ledgers, and all documents and papers pertaining to the operation, maintenance and 3 proceeds of the Property, whether in the possession and control of the Judgment
4 Debtors or in the possession and control of agents, servants or employees of the 5 Judgment Debtors.

6 17. The Receiver shall prepare, file and serve a written report as to the 7 Property of the receivership, including a recommendation as to how to satisfy the 8 subject judgments from said Property if the receivership is confirmed, not less than 9 five days before the confirmation hearing.

10 CONCLUSION:

11 This Court is most mindful of the nature and quality of this collection effort. The 12 consequences for the judgment debtors are significant and the Court does not 13 undertake this Order lightly. But the Court is concerned that further delays in 14 collection of this longstanding judgment debt will diminish and in important ways make 15 mockery of the very processes of the Court system itself. It is in light of that concern 16 that the Court makes the effective date of this Order ten (10) days from today's date.
17 It is the Court's sincere hope that during that time period Judgment Debtors will take 18 care of this obligation and avoid the specter of this drastic measure of collection.
19 Failing that, the process of the Court and the Receiver will move forward, as they 20 must, pursuant to the terms of this order.

18
 19 Patrick Bulmer, Court Appointed Receiver in this matter (hereinafter "Receiver")
 20 hereby submits the following Third Interim Report.

21 PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

22 Following entry of the Ruling re: Funds Seized By Receiver on December 10, 2012
 23 and service of Receiver's Second Interim Report on January 21, 2013, Receiver distributed 24 the funds he was holding, $66,001.01 as follows:

25 Receiver's Interim Fees and Expenses through Second Report	$32,003.14
26 Receiver's Attorney, Steven M. Olson (through January 16, 2013 bill)	$11,727.50
27 Judgment Creditor Mandy Power	$19,270.37
28 Total Distribution:	$63,001.01

1 Receiver also withheld $3,000.00 to be applied to anticipated fees and expenses
2 through Receiver's estimated discharge.

3 Through communications with judgment creditor Mandy Power, Receiver understood
4 that Power was negotiating with Jeffry Locke, the Chapter 7 trustee in the Den Bestes'
5 bankruptcy case, for payment of the balance of her claim from the bankruptcy estate. This 6 was based on a repurchase of the Den Bestes' assets from the bankruptcy estate in the 7 amount of $250,000.00.

8 Judgment creditor Mandy Power passed away on August 1, 2013. On August 2, 9 2013, the U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Northern District of California, Santa Rosa Division
10 approved a settlement reached between Ms. Power and the bankruptcy estate. Receiver has 11 worked with Ms. Power's attorney and personal representative to facilitate the settlement, 12 and Ms. Power's estate has been paid in full for the underlying judgments that are subject to 13 the receivership, and those judgments are now fully satisfied.

14 NARRATIVE REPORT OF EVENTS

15 On April 17, 2013, Paul Den Beste, ostensibly acting on behalf of the James L. Den
16 Beste Family 1997 Trust, filed an involuntary Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition against Receiver 17 alleging, inter alia, that Receiver "is generally not paying [Receiver's] debts as they become 18 due," and that Receiver owes Paul Den Beste a debt in the amount of $66,001.01 that is not 19 "the subject of a bona fide dispute as to liability or amount."

20 On May 2, 2013, upon Receiver's ex parte application, the Court authorized Receiver
21 to employ counsel: Steven M. Olson of Santa Rosa, to represent Receiver in the involuntary
22 bankruptcy case; and Brad C. Brereton of Santa Cruz, to represent Receiver in future 23 proceedings in this action.

24 During this time, Receiver primarily dealt with his bankruptcy attorney in response to 25 Paul Den Beste's involuntary petition. Receiver also handle routine business related to the 26 Den Bestes' bankruptcy petition and facilitating payment of the final settlement from the 27 bankruptcy trustee to judgment creditor Power, as detailed in Receiver's attached billing 28 statement.

On July 1, 2013, the bankruptcy court entered an order dismissing the involuntary petition. However, Paul Den Beste filed additional motions seeking to vacate the dismissal and requesting a bench warrant issued against Receiver. The bankruptcy court denied these motions on August 30, 2013.

On September 11, 2013, Paul Den Beste filed a notice of appeal regarding dismissal of the involuntary bankruptcy case. Said appeal remains pending.

Receiver's counsel had hearing set for December 3, 2013 on a motion for attorney fees and damages resulting from the bankruptcy case. However, Paul Den Beste filed a lengthy written objection to the tentative ruling of the Bankruptcy Court on December 2, 2013. The Bankruptcy Court indicated at the hearing on December 3 that the matter was submitted and an order would be issued upon determination.

RECEIVER'S INTERIM FEES & EXPENSES

Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct statement of Receiver's fees and expenses incurred from February 19, 2013 through December 4, 2013.

Receiver's Interim Fees and Expenses on Third Interim Report	$8,834.60
Less Reserve Held in Trust	($3,000.00)
Balance Due on Receiver's Fees and Expenses:	$5,834.60

RECEIVER'S ATTORNEY FEES

Pursuant to authorization from this Court entered in the minutes on September 16, 2010, Receiver retained attorney Steven M. Olson to represent Receiver in the DEN BESTES' bankruptcy case. Mr. Olson has also advised Receiver in relation to the lawsuit filed against Receiver and MANDY POWER in the U.S. District Court, Eastern District of California. On May 2, 2013, this Court authorized Receiver to employ Mr. Olson to defend against the involuntary bankruptcy petition filed against Receiver (as an individual) by Paul Den Beste.

Attached hereto as Exhibit B are true and correct copies of attorney Steven M. Olson's billing statements generated on October 22, 2013 and November 26, 2013 in the total amount of $14,296.74. Previous billing statements from attorney Steven M. Olson were

1 attached to Receiver's First and Second Interim Reports and served on all parties entitled to 2 notice.

3 FINANCIAL REPORT

4 Receiver is holding $3,000.00 remaining from funds seized from the James L. Den
5 Beste Family Trust to cover Receiver's interim fees and expenses. Receiver will pay those 6 funds upon service of this Third Interim Report.

7 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the 8 foregoing is true and correct. Executed at Oroville, California.

Patrick Bulmer, Court Appointed Receiver in this matter (hereinafter "Receiver") hereby submits the following Seventh Interim Report.

STATUS OF PENDING LITIGATION AGAINST AND INVOLVING RECEIVER

The following actions against Receiver and / or relating to the receivership are known to be pending at this time:

In re Patrick Bulmer (Involuntary Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Petition), Case Number 13-25283, U.S. Bankruptcy Court, Eastern District of California, petition filed on April 17, 2013, case dismissed on July 1, 2013, motion to vacate denied on August 30, 2013. Paul Den Beste's original appeal was dismissed for failure to prosecute. The matter is now pending on

1 appeal before the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, has been fully briefed, and is awaiting 2 disposition on the merits.

3 People v. Paul Den Beste (Criminal Action), Case Number SCR-656935, Superior
4 Court, County of Sonoma. Paul Den Beste faces six counts each of vehicle theft and 5 possession of stolen vehicles, plus one count of contempt of court for disobeying a court
6 order. Preliminary hearing was held on January 19, 2016. Paul Den Beste was held to 7 answer on all counts and further proceedings, including trial, are pending.

8 NARRATIVE REPORT OF EVENTS

9 Paul and Melody Den Beste continue to stand in an attitude of contempt toward the 10 Court and the receivership. As disclosed previously, they are continuing to operate the Den
11 Beste Yard & Garden business without authorization through a company ostensibly owned 12 by their son, Christopher Den Beste.

13 Receiver's duties since the Sixth Interim Report have been limited to conferring with 14 counsel regarding pending litigation, and attending the preliminary hearing in Paul Den
15 Beste's pending criminal matter.

16 PROPERTY HELD PURSUANT TO RECEIVERSHIP ORDER

17 Receiver continues to hold the following vehicles, which were recovered on 18 September 30, 2014 following Paul Den Beste's unauthorized taking of same:

19	YB8584	1986	RELIANCE	DUMP TRAILER	1218
20	1WF1353	1999	ALLOY	TRAILER	0107
21	6S52262	1993	PETERBILT	COMMERCIAL	4387
22	9A93018	1999	PETERBILT	COMMERCIAL	3874
23	9E43546	1994	PETERBILT	COMMERCIAL	3058
24	GT26773	2000	TRAVIS	DUMP TRAILER	1204

25 As detailed in Receiver's previous reports, Defendants have gone to great lengths to 26 interfere with Receiver's efforts to marshal other assets of the receivership estate as 27 provided in the Court's December 5, 2013 Order, such that Receiver has been required to 28

1 withhold the above-referenced vehicles as security for ongoing costs associated with the 2 pending legal actions and appeals maintained by the Defendants.

3 Receiver expects to apply to the Court in the near future seeking authority to sell
4 these vehicle assets due to depletion of funds of the receivership estate for attorney fees,
5 costs and Receiver's necessary continued involvement in the pending criminal matter.
6 Receiver has obtained preliminary offers to purchase said vehicles from the owners of 7 Binford Road Storage. Receiver will apply to the Court for permission to sell these vehicles
8 and will endeavor to obtain the greatest return on their value.

9 FINANCIAL REPORT

10 As of January 24, 2016, there remains $4,389.35 in the receivership checking
11 account after payment of fees and expenses reported through Receiver's Sixth Interim 12 Report.

13 Receiver has continued to incur storage charges for the vehicles held at Binford 14 Road Storage at the rate of $360.00 per month since August 2015 that remain unpaid. Such 15 storage fees will be paid from proceeds from the sale of the trucks or through other 16 receivership assets in the future per agreement with Binford Road Storage.

17 RECEIVER'S INTERIM FEES & EXPENSES

18 Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a true and correct statement of Receiver's fees and 19 expenses incurred from September 16, 2015 through January 19, 2016 in the total amount of 20 $2,881.80.

21 RECEIVER'S ATTORNEY FEES

22 Receiver has, pursuant to previous orders of the Court, retained attorneys Steven M.
23 Olson, to represent Receiver in related bankruptcy matters, and Brad C. Brereton, to 24 represent Receiver in this underlying action.

25 The latest bill owed to attorney Steven M. Olson for services performed in relation to 26 the involuntary bankruptcy initiated by Paul Den Beste against Patrick Bulmer, and the 27 related appeals, is attached hereto as Exhibit B. Due to a shortage of available funds, this 28 bill has not yet been paid. Receiver intends to pay this bill, and any additional bill for fees

1 and expenses, upon sale of the trucks seized from Den Beste Yard & Garden or through 2 such other assets as may be obtained through the receivership.

3 Attorney Brad C. Brereton continues to incur fees and expenses through 4 representation of Receiver in state court proceedings. A current bill will be attached to the 5 next interim report when received.

6 I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the 7 foregoing is true and correct. Executed at Oroville, California.
